

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. Eddie Babcock, of V.P.I., was at home last week-end.

Mr. Richard McKeon, of H. S. C., was home for the week-end.

Misses Eleanor Harwood and Elizabeth McKeon spent Saturday in Blacksburg.

Misses Frankie McKinney and Mary Trent, of S. T. C., were home for the week-end.

Mr. Henry McLaughlin and Mr. Storer were the guests of Richard McKeon Sunday.

Miss Avis Brown has returned from Richmond, where she went to see a specialist.

Messrs. George and Watt Abbott, of Richmond University, spent the week-end at home.

Miss Reva Turner, of Lynchburg, was week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. R. H. Coleman, near Vena.

Mrs. Jimmie Caldwell has returned from an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. Simpkins, at Mt. Hope, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ellis Brame, Jr., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. O'Brien for the week-end.

Miss Mabel Connor, of Lynchburg, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. U. Connor, near here.

Beautiful Hat, Dresses, and Coats on sale Saturday. Be sure to come and Mrs. W. S. VA'S BONNET SHOP.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Henderson Jr., and their daughter visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Henderson, at Bedford, Va., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Simpkins and daughter, of Mt. Hope, Va., visited Mrs. Simpkins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cawthorn, this week.

Misses Mary Lou, Shirley and Loveline Bryant, of Lynchburg, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bryant, near Hollywood.

The Little Clodhoppers will be presented at Woodland school, May 19th, at 8 o'clock, for the benefit of school library. Come and bring your friends, admission 15 and 25 cents.

Miss Epperly has awarded Katie Goin, Jessilyn Ransage, Gladys Ransage, Emma Ransage and John Henry Ransage as winners in a tooth brush contest at Rocks School.

Mrs. G. L. Furr and little daughter, Mary Catherine, of Blacksburg, Va., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ferguson, at old Courthouse this week.

Appomattox won from Phenix Saturday by a 6 to 5 count. Appomattox is still leading the league. Phenix won its first game of the season Saturday defeating Buckingham by a score of 22 to 15. Buckingham and Phenix are still tied for the second place.

The Baccalaureate sermon, of Vena school, will be preached at New Hope church Sunday May 20, at 2 p. m., by Rev. W. M. Thompson, of Liberty Baptist church. The patrons of Vena school have completed the job of painting Vena school. This favor is greatly appreciated by the teachers and pupils of the school. We are proud of our working patrons.

County Agent R. M. Hudgins is to run three alfalfa and one dark tobacco test in Appomattox county. These tests are to show the effect of topdressings of potash on the above-mentioned crops. Messrs. R. W. Morris, G. O. Gordon and R. G. Anderson's farms were selected as the locations. The idea is to show that topdressings will pay if made under the proper conditions, having in mind both quality and yield of crop. It will be of interest to the farmers of this section of Virginia to know these tests in mind and to follow them up later as to results obtained.

TEXAS LUNATICS TO TAKE UP GOLF

State Lays Out Course on Grounds of Asylum.

Austin, Texas.—Lively times are in prospect on the new golf course which the state board of control is laying out on the grounds of the state insane asylum at Austin. Inmates of the institution make it their principal topic of discussion, and they are already preparing to challenge some of the best golf players of the state for match games. It is the theory of H. B. Vail, chairman of the board of control, that playing golf will result in much physical and mental benefit to insane patients. The board is preparing to establish golf courses at all of the other state insane asylums, sanitariums, training schools and hospitals of the state.

"Some of the institutions have more ground than others, but we shall see to it that all get golf courses," Mr. Vail said. "It will be very remedial to superintendents that they get certain hours of the day for certain groups in order that all may get a few rounds every day. If this can be accomplished, the 2,000 inmates at the San Antonio asylum, 2,000 at the Terrell asylum and 2,000 at the Austin asylum will get in their 'daily dose'."

The White Plains insane hospital has 1,023 inmates.

"Many of these inmates already are doing outdoor work, such as gardening, but some kind of sport is needed. Most of these institutions raise their own garden truck and have dairies that produce sufficient milk and butter. This largely reduces the state expenses and nearly all of the work is accomplished by patients. We have patients recently put up a building at San Antonio and they thoroughly enjoyed the labor. It did them much good."

Here, as elsewhere, politics is the topic of the entire town. At Smith, of course looms first, as a subject, but so far, I hear of few, or no supporters. How repugnant to any one of our great U. S. is the idea of an anti-prohibitionist and a Catholic being our president—never, no never. There are in this state 12,000 men and women running for office.

Blacksburg is well supplied with churches, and the ministers of the various churches are educated, interesting and pious men. A spirit of harmony prevails and it is refreshing to be aware of this feature among a multitude of christian people.

The weather is cool, but very pleasant. There are frequent showers and all vegetation is green and attractive looking.

My visit will soon come to an end here and I will leave with regret my dear relatives and a host of kind friends. Hoping this will find my native country town on a boom and its people well, happy and prosperous.

I remain as ever, YERITAS.

Jesse J. Lee

Jesse J. Lee, 37 years of age, died at his home in Lynchburg Tuesday.

Mr. Lee was born April 13, 1891, the son of George and Mrs. Betty Brooks Lee, of Appomattox county. He was a member of West Lynchburg Church and of Odd Fellows.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Hudson Lee, and three daughters: Frances, Lillian and Lois Lee.

T. Butler Pretlow

T. Butler Pretlow, who was taken to Virginia Baptist Hospital Sunday for treatment, died Tuesday at 9:30 o'clock.

He is survived by his widow and two children.

His remains were interred here yesterday in Liberty cemetery.

Mrs. Pretlow is in feeble health and much sympathy is expressed for her in this sorrow.

W. Scott Heath

W. Scott Heath, a former employee of this office, died at his home at Lovingston Monday, in the 48th year of his age.

He was owner of the Norton Times and was at one time postmaster of his town. He is survived by his widow and several children.

Vapor Not Steam

Steam is variable. The white cloud of vapor coming from the boiler is composed of minute particles of water suspended in the air and formed by the condensation of the steam coming in contact with the cool air.

Alter Designations

The epistle of the altar is the right side, looking toward the altar, so called because the epistle of the day is read at that side. It is secondarily the right side, or left side, and the feast days it is occupied by the lesser dignities of the church.

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

TEXAS LUNATICS TO TAKE UP GOLF

State Lays Out Course on Grounds of Asylum.

Austin, Texas.—Lively times are in prospect on the new golf course which the state board of control is laying out on the grounds of the state insane asylum at Austin. Inmates of the institution make it their principal topic of discussion, and they are already preparing to challenge some of the best golf players of the state for match games. It is the theory of H. B. Vail, chairman of the board of control, that playing golf will result in much physical and mental benefit to insane patients. The board is preparing to establish golf courses at all of the other state insane asylums, sanitariums, training schools and hospitals of the state.

"Some of the institutions have more ground than others, but we shall see to it that all get golf courses," Mr. Vail said. "It will be very remedial to superintendents that they get certain hours of the day for certain groups in order that all may get a few rounds every day. If this can be accomplished, the 2,000 inmates at the San Antonio asylum, 2,000 at the Terrell asylum and 2,000 at the Austin asylum will get in their 'daily dose'."

The White Plains insane hospital has 1,023 inmates.

"Many of these inmates already are doing outdoor work, such as gardening, but some kind of sport is needed. Most of these institutions raise their own garden truck and have dairies that produce sufficient milk and butter. This largely reduces the state expenses and nearly all of the work is accomplished by patients. We have patients recently put up a building at San Antonio and they thoroughly enjoyed the labor. It did them much good."

Here, as elsewhere, politics is the topic of the entire town. At Smith, of course looms first, as a subject, but so far, I hear of few, or no supporters. How repugnant to any one of our great U. S. is the idea of an anti-prohibitionist and a Catholic being our president—never, no never. There are in this state 12,000 men and women running for office.

Blacksburg is well supplied with churches, and the ministers of the various churches are educated, interesting and pious men. A spirit of harmony prevails and it is refreshing to be aware of this feature among a multitude of christian people.

The weather is cool, but very pleasant. There are frequent showers and all vegetation is green and attractive looking.

My visit will soon come to an end here and I will leave with regret my dear relatives and a host of kind friends. Hoping this will find my native country town on a boom and its people well, happy and prosperous.

I remain as ever, YERITAS.

Jesse J. Lee

Jesse J. Lee, 37 years of age, died at his home in Lynchburg Tuesday.

Mr. Lee was born April 13, 1891, the son of George and Mrs. Betty Brooks Lee, of Appomattox county. He was a member of West Lynchburg Church and of Odd Fellows.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Hudson Lee, and three daughters: Frances, Lillian and Lois Lee.

T. Butler Pretlow

T. Butler Pretlow, who was taken to Virginia Baptist Hospital Sunday for treatment, died Tuesday at 9:30 o'clock.

He is survived by his widow and two children.

His remains were interred here yesterday in Liberty cemetery.

Mrs. Pretlow is in feeble health and much sympathy is expressed for her in this sorrow.

W. Scott Heath

W. Scott Heath, a former employee of this office, died at his home at Lovingston Monday, in the 48th year of his age.

He was owner of the Norton Times and was at one time postmaster of his town. He is survived by his widow and several children.

Vapor Not Steam

Steam is variable. The white cloud of vapor coming from the boiler is composed of minute particles of water suspended in the air and formed by the condensation of the steam coming in contact with the cool air.

Alter Designations

The epistle of the altar is the right side, looking toward the altar, so called because the epistle of the day is read at that side. It is secondarily the right side, or left side, and the feast days it is occupied by the lesser dignities of the church.

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

TEXAS LUNATICS TO TAKE UP GOLF

State Lays Out Course on Grounds of Asylum.

Austin, Texas.—Lively times are in prospect on the new golf course which the state board of control is laying out on the grounds of the state insane asylum at Austin. Inmates of the institution make it their principal topic of discussion, and they are already preparing to challenge some of the best golf players of the state for match games. It is the theory of H. B. Vail, chairman of the board of control, that playing golf will result in much physical and mental benefit to insane patients. The board is preparing to establish golf courses at all of the other state insane asylums, sanitariums, training schools and hospitals of the state.

"Some of the institutions have more ground than others, but we shall see to it that all get golf courses," Mr. Vail said. "It will be very remedial to superintendents that they get certain hours of the day for certain groups in order that all may get a few rounds every day. If this can be accomplished, the 2,000 inmates at the San Antonio asylum, 2,000 at the Terrell asylum and 2,000 at the Austin asylum will get in their 'daily dose'."

The White Plains insane hospital has 1,023 inmates.

"Many of these inmates already are doing outdoor work, such as gardening, but some kind of sport is needed. Most of these institutions raise their own garden truck and have dairies that produce sufficient milk and butter. This largely reduces the state expenses and nearly all of the work is accomplished by patients. We have patients recently put up a building at San Antonio and they thoroughly enjoyed the labor. It did them much good."

Here, as elsewhere, politics is the topic of the entire town. At Smith, of course looms first, as a subject, but so far, I hear of few, or no supporters. How repugnant to any one of our great U. S. is the idea of an anti-prohibitionist and a Catholic being our president—never, no never. There are in this state 12,000 men and women running for office.

Blacksburg is well supplied with churches, and the ministers of the various churches are educated, interesting and pious men. A spirit of harmony prevails and it is refreshing to be aware of this feature among a multitude of christian people.

The weather is cool, but very pleasant. There are frequent showers and all vegetation is green and attractive looking.

My visit will soon come to an end here and I will leave with regret my dear relatives and a host of kind friends. Hoping this will find my native country town on a boom and its people well, happy and prosperous.

I remain as ever, YERITAS.

Jesse J. Lee

Jesse J. Lee, 37 years of age, died at his home in Lynchburg Tuesday.

Mr. Lee was born April 13, 1891, the son of George and Mrs. Betty Brooks Lee, of Appomattox county. He was a member of West Lynchburg Church and of Odd Fellows.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Hudson Lee, and three daughters: Frances, Lillian and Lois Lee.

T. Butler Pretlow

T. Butler Pretlow, who was taken to Virginia Baptist Hospital Sunday for treatment, died Tuesday at 9:30 o'clock.

He is survived by his widow and two children.

His remains were interred here yesterday in Liberty cemetery.

Mrs. Pretlow is in feeble health and much sympathy is expressed for her in this sorrow.

W. Scott Heath

W. Scott Heath, a former employee of this office, died at his home at Lovingston Monday, in the 48th year of his age.

He was owner of the Norton Times and was at one time postmaster of his town. He is survived by his widow and several children.

Vapor Not Steam

Steam is variable. The white cloud of vapor coming from the boiler is composed of minute particles of water suspended in the air and formed by the condensation of the steam coming in contact with the cool air.

Alter Designations

The epistle of the altar is the right side, looking toward the altar, so called because the epistle of the day is read at that side. It is secondarily the right side, or left side, and the feast days it is occupied by the lesser dignities of the church.

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

TEXAS LUNATICS TO TAKE UP GOLF

State Lays Out Course on Grounds of Asylum.

Austin, Texas.—Lively times are in prospect on the new golf course which the state board of control is laying out on the grounds of the state insane asylum at Austin. Inmates of the institution make it their principal topic of discussion, and they are already preparing to challenge some of the best golf players of the state for match games. It is the theory of H. B. Vail, chairman of the board of control, that playing golf will result in much physical and mental benefit to insane patients. The board is preparing to establish golf courses at all of the other state insane asylums, sanitariums, training schools and hospitals of the state.

"Some of the institutions have more ground than others, but we shall see to it that all get golf courses," Mr. Vail said. "It will be very remedial to superintendents that they get certain hours of the day for certain groups in order that all may get a few rounds every day. If this can be accomplished, the 2,000 inmates at the San Antonio asylum, 2,000 at the Terrell asylum and 2,000 at the Austin asylum will get in their 'daily dose'."

The White Plains insane hospital has 1,023 inmates.

"Many of these inmates already are doing outdoor work, such as gardening, but some kind of sport is needed. Most of these institutions raise their own garden truck and have dairies that produce sufficient milk and butter. This largely reduces the state expenses and nearly all of the work is accomplished by patients. We have patients recently put up a building at San Antonio and they thoroughly enjoyed the labor. It did them much good."

Here, as elsewhere, politics is the topic of the entire town. At Smith, of course looms first, as a subject, but so far, I hear of few, or no supporters. How repugnant to any one of our great U. S. is the idea of an anti-prohibitionist and a Catholic being our president—never, no never. There are in this state 12,000 men and women running for office.

Blacksburg is well supplied with churches, and the ministers of the various churches are educated, interesting and pious men. A spirit of harmony prevails and it is refreshing to be aware of this feature among a multitude of christian people.

The weather is cool, but very pleasant. There are frequent showers and all vegetation is green and attractive looking.

My visit will soon come to an end here and I will leave with regret my dear relatives and a host of kind friends. Hoping this will find my native country town on a boom and its people well, happy and prosperous.

I remain as ever, YERITAS.

Jesse J. Lee

Jesse J. Lee, 37 years of age, died at his home in Lynchburg Tuesday.

Mr. Lee was born April 13, 1891, the son of George and Mrs. Betty Brooks Lee, of Appomattox county. He was a member of West Lynchburg Church and of Odd Fellows.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Hudson Lee, and three daughters: Frances, Lillian and Lois Lee.

T. Butler Pretlow

T. Butler Pretlow, who was taken to Virginia Baptist Hospital Sunday for treatment, died Tuesday at 9:30 o'clock.

He is survived by his widow and two children.

His remains were interred here yesterday in Liberty cemetery.

Mrs. Pretlow is in feeble health and much sympathy is expressed for her in this sorrow.

W. Scott Heath

W. Scott Heath, a former employee of this office, died at his home at Lovingston Monday, in the 48th year of his age.

He was owner of the Norton Times and was at one time postmaster of his town. He is survived by his widow and several children.

Vapor Not Steam

Steam is variable. The white cloud of vapor coming from the boiler is composed of minute particles of water suspended in the air and formed by the condensation of the steam coming in contact with the cool air.

Alter Designations

The epistle of the altar is the right side, looking toward the altar, so called because the epistle of the day is read at that side. It is secondarily the right side, or left side, and the feast days it is occupied by the lesser dignities of the church.

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

Let us do your next printing

Tim ex-Virginian

TEXAS LUNATICS TO TAKE UP GOLF

State Lays Out Course on Grounds of Asylum.

Austin, Texas.—Lively times are in prospect on the new golf course which the state board of control is laying out on the grounds of the state insane asylum at Austin. Inmates of the institution make it their principal topic of discussion, and they are already preparing to challenge some of the best golf players of the state for match games. It is the theory of H. B. Vail, chairman of the board of control, that playing golf will result in much physical and mental benefit to insane patients. The board is preparing to establish golf courses at all of the other state insane asylums, sanitariums, training schools and hospitals of the state.

"Some of the institutions have more ground than others, but we shall see to it that all get golf courses," Mr. Vail said. "It will be very remedial to superintendents that they get certain hours of the day for certain